CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 16th June 2005

PC :

1. These notices of motions stand disposed off by virtue of an order passed by Supreme Court on 4th May 2005. In terms of the Supreme Court order the sealed containers/envelopes containing certain votes cast at the 61st Annual General Meeting of defendant no.12 company and deposited with the Prothonotary & Senior Master of this Court are required to be handed over to the scrutineers appointed at that meeting. One of the scrutineers Mr.Ram Subramaniyam has been admitted to a hospital and is presently in ICU.. The parties, therefore, jointly request that the sealed containers/envelops be handed over to other scrutineer i.e. Mr.Madhavan. A joint principle is placed on record. It is signed by all concerned advocates.

2. By consent of all parties, the Prothonotary & Senior Master is directed to hand over the sealed containers/envelops to another scrutineer Mr.Madhavan. No other directions are sought. Application made by parties seeking aforesaid directions stands disposed of.
